Teacher of the Month

BOND PRIMARY

Our Teacher of the Month is Mrs. Rowcliffe. She is a wonderful team player. She jumps in and helps without having to be asked. We are very lucky to have her here at Bond.

MIDDLE SCHOOL

Congratulations to Mr. Smith!

Students and staff all describe him as awesome, fun and teaches in a way that is fun and exciting. This is his fourth year teaching at Central A&M Middle School. He is the 6th grade Science and Social Studies teacher as well as the Eco Club Sponsor.

Witches or Tricksters

by Aurora J.

In January of 1692, several young girls began screaming, throwing things, uttering strange sounds, crawling under furniture and complaining of being pinched and pricked with sharp pins. The village doctor examined the girls and found nothing physically wrong with them. These strange afflictions spread to other girls in the village. When the girls heard sermons they would have loud outbursts and would not sit still. It was quite terrifying for them all! The town's people started to investigate the strange occurrences. The girls told them that it was the old witches from down the road that were causing this to happen to them. That is how the Salem Witch Trials began. Do you believe that it was witchcraft or do you think the girls were playing a prank on the town's people?
